Independent guide. This book is published by SalaryBit, a private company. It is not affiliated with the Government of Karnataka, any municipality, gram panchayat or government department. Official government fees, property tax dues and other charges are separate and paid directly to the authority. Following this guide does not guarantee approval or any processing time. This is general information, not legal advice.

Portals change. The screenshots and steps were documented on the official portals in May 2026. Screens, field names, file-size limits and rules can change. If something on the portal looks different, follow the portal's current instructions and check with the local authority.

Which portal is yours?

- City Municipal Council (CMC) and other urban local bodies outside BBMP: use the e-Aasthi portal. See Part 2.
- Gram Panchayat limits (rural): use the e-Swathu portal. See Part 3.
- BBMP (Bengaluru) properties: these use a separate BBMP e-Aasthi portal, which this book does not cover.

Not sure which applies? Check which authority collects your property tax: a municipal body or a gram panchayat.

How to Apply for e-Khata (e-Aasthi) Online in Karnataka: Step-by-Step Guide with Screenshots

A complete walkthrough of the Karnataka e-Aasthi (KMDS) portal — from Google search to payment confirmation — with actual portal screenshots at every step.
